

Rummage Sale

Walnut Village Rummage Sale will be held

Saturday May 10th
9:00A.M-5:00P.M.

in the garage behind the facility, just off Cedar Street.

This was one of LaVonne's special projects to help the residents out by providing body & mind stimulating experiences.

The proceeds are going to be spent on resident's special activities such as live music, day trips, etc. Suggestions Welcome.
Anyone wishing to make any donations please contact Gert.

LaVonne Blakey

Note of Sympathy

Thank God for Life's journey... bringing us a friend as good as LaVonne

Walnut Village residents and staff would like to send their condolences to the LaVonne Blakey Family, in the loss of our friend, their beloved Mother & Grandmother.

Many people have benefited from LaVonne's kindness and care. She has left her handprint on Walnut Village and we are better for knowing her.

May God Grant LaVonne Peace!

Rudy Freier Memorial

Walnut Village is in the process of purchasing a Podium & PA system to be used by guest speakers, Church Services etc.

Many Thanks to the Family of Rudy Freier for their donation.

LaVonne Blakey Memorial

Walnut Village would like to purchase a Memorial Item in Memory of LaVonne. Suggestions & the amount of donations will determine the item purchased. Thanks to all of those that have already donated to the LaVonne Blakey Memorial fund.

Get Well Soon

Edith Anderson has been in the Yankton Care Center recovering from a fall. Walnut Village residents and staff wish her a quick recovery so she can return home.

Helen Gearhart continues recovery at Sister James.
